JSS MAHAVIDYAPEETHA

Jagadguru Sri Shivarathreshwara Mahavidyapeetha formally established in 1954 by Jagadguru sri Veerasimhasana Samsthana Mutt, Suttur has been described by many eminent educationists as greater than a university. Under its aegis a child can begin its education in the kindergarten and proceed to earn a degree and even a doctorate in several branches of learning. Simultaneously, the Mahavidyapeetha has not neglected to strengthen the roots of our ancient knowledge, wisdom and culture and their application to today's life. Sanskrit Patashalas, Yoga Kendras, Spiritual Retreats, Gurukulas, Art and Cultural Forums are doing this work.

Today, the Mahavidyapeetha is a center of learning that guides about 350 institutions spread out over Karnataka, neighbouring Tamil Nadu, Uttar Pradesh, Dubai, Mauritius and USA. Every year new establishments of learning join the fold of the Mahavidyapeetha.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION SYSTEM OF JSS MAHAVIDYAPEETHA

JSS Mahavidyapeetha has established a separate directorate to look after its technical institutions. This directorate under the control of Director (Technical) operates with an integrated approach to produce technical manpower. The Polytechnics and Industrial Training Centres lay emphasis on skill development in the technical manpower they produce, whereas the college of Engineering lay emphasis on the transfer of technology, research and development, higher education in Engineering, Consultancy, Sponsored Projects, Continuing Education, Industry – Institute partnership etc., SJCE-Science and Technology Entrepreneurs Park (STEP) addresses itself to product and entrepreneurship development.
